

コネクテッドインダストリーへのより 速い移行 - スウェーデンのやり方

Faster transition to Connected Manufacturing – the Swedish way

Johan Harvard
Deputy Director, Ministry of Enterprise and Innovation
Swedish Government

Sweden: Leader in Competitiveness

Global Competitiveness Index

Only 7 countries have managed to stay top 10 globally since 2006

SOURCE: WORLD ECONOMIC FORUM 2016

Government Offices of Sweden

Ministry of Enterprise and Innovation

Small country, big brands, fast startups

Government Offices of Sweden

Ministry of Enterprise and Innovation

A global business environment

Foreign companies employ 33% of employees in Swedish manufacturing industry.

Connected Industry: Top priority for Swedish Government

“Sweden is a world leader in innovative and sustainable industrial manufacturing of goods and services”

SMART INDUSTRY: Policy in 4 areas

Challenge

Priority

Digitalisation

Quick digital transition

Industry 4.0

Sustainability

Global green transition

Sustainable production

Skills

Advanced skills needed to compete globally

Upskilling manufacturing

Innovativeness

Competition for business R&D investments

Testbed Sweden

Need for speed

International innovation partnerships

Three examples

1

2

3

1

Advanced testbeds for manufacturing

5G-Enabled Manufacturing

Driving digitalisation and innovation in manufacturing through "unlimited" 5G connectivity

Corporate Startup Collaboration

B2B Startup? Take the chance to create valuable business opportunities, by joining Ignite Sweden now!

2

3

DIGILIFT: Digitalization Lift of SMEs

- WHAT? Programme to reach thousands of SMEs in industrial sector
- WHY? BOOST utilization of digital technologies, robotics, IoT, business models
- HOW? Coaching, advisory services, seminars, on-line support

Thank you!

Johan Harvard
johan.harvard@gov.se
+46 72 587 1779

